PEN-PAL PARADE

In DM Newsletter No. 44 we printed a letter by Pam Moore of Lawton, Oklahoma. Miss Moore wrote, "Since all your fans are writing to you guys, why don't we write to each other (pen pals) All people have to do is send in their addresses and you guys can print some in your next newsletter." Well, a lot of people thought Pam's idea was a good one. So far we have received 55 postcards with names and addresses which we have printed below. Any postcards that we receive after today we will print in a separate list, okay? Groovy!

Oh yeah, even though they did not ask to be on the pen pal list, Rodney thought you might want to write to Jim and Tammy Bakker, to cheer them up perhaps. Their address is: Jim and Tammy / P.O. Box 690788 / Orlando, FL 32869-0788

MILKMEN FALL TOUR: ALBUM BEING WRITTEN

FLAMEHEAD TO RELEASE ALBUM ON TEXAS HOTEL

BABY FLAMEHEAD, the other band for which Dean drums, is at Morning Star recording studios RIGHT NOW putting the final touches on their first album which is scheduled to be released on TEXAS HOTEL records early next year. They have plans for an east coast tour, so stay tuned. They have developed quite a strong local following with shows they've played recently here in Philly. Their basic instrumentation is acoustic guitar, creaktion (acoustic) bass, snare/bass/drum/cymbal, and vocals.

ANONYMOUS AND TALCUM FEUD

In the midst of a recent DEAD MILKMAN business meeting concerning the negotiation of the new contract with Enigma Records and future business plans, a dispute erupted between Joe Jack "Jasper Thread" Talcum, who now calls himself Butterfly, and a man known as "Mr. Anonymous". Money "Mr. Anonymous" is certain what triggered the dispute as neither party is willing to talk to us about it. A source close to bass player Dave "Lord Maniac" Blood however has informed that the dispute was triggered by a misunderstanding of the meaning of the words KING MISSILE (DOG FLY RELIGION) before the fight broke out. Mr. Fairweather and Mr. Anonymous have not spoken to each other since the fight. The two are communicating only through notes, telegrams and semaphore.

Learning is fun, learning improves our lives. I learned my multiplication tables from a combination of statistically pretty kooky records and sheer hardy borrowed from Vietnamese prison camp. How did I get? Pocket calculators claimed that most little rite of childhood, lucky affix. We don't have to learn anything anymore. We only have to learn how to use the calculator. We should be professionals. We should be a nation of professionals. I'm serious, buying the goods produced by the communist, it is our destiny. We have been trained to do this, it's the actual number, because concrete numbers and facts are pass, they depression is also our future. Look at the haze floating about in the air, look at the clouds necessary to maintain order in a chaotic society exists in a world that is actually chaotic. Oh, never mind I don't know that I'm talking about. I just want to tell you for this reason, I'm serious, had to write for this issue.

MILKMEN FALL TOUR; ALBUM BEING WRITTEN

It's that time of year once again. The students are going back to school. The workers are going back to work. And the Dead Milkmen are going back on tour. It's a short tour though, of Mid-western and Northeastern U.S. and Canada. The main objective for the Milkmen this autumn is to write and rehearse new songs for the album they plan to record in January. Already the prolific Milkmen have written almost five dozen new songs but, as Mr. Anonymous has pointed out, they are almost all about concrete. "If you want to know how to mix and pour concrete," says Rodney, "well, then this will be the perfect album for you!"

ANONYMCUS AND TALCUM FEUD

In the midst of a recent DEAD MILKMEN business meeting concerning the negotiation of the new contract with Enigma Records and future business plans, a dispute erupted between Joe Jack "Jasper Thread" Talcum, who now calls himself Butterfly Fairweather, and Rodney "Amadeus" Anonymous. None of us are certain what triggered the dispute as neither party is willing to talk to us about it. A source close to bass player Dave "Lord Maniac" Blood however has informed us that the Milkmen were reportedly discussing the lyrical irony of the songs of KING MISSILE (DOG FLY RELIGION) before the fight broke out. Mr. Fairweather and Mr. Anonymous have not spoken to each other since the meeting but have been communicating only through notes, telegrams and semaphore.

Letters from the D.M.'s

MY DEAREST DEAD MILKMEN, you've heard it all before, how mad you guys are, how you know if you can answer something for me. You've too know the country, and seem to spend a lot of time away from the parents are driving me crazy!!!! I guess why I am you all is to find out if starting a band is the on away from parents. And I figure you'll give me a be than Ann Landers.

Thanks, I'll obey you're every wish and command, n Ted Thornton

DEAR TED,

THERE ARE MANY WAYS TO GET AWAY FROM YOU. TOURING WITH A BAND IS ONLY ONE OF THEM. MAN, HOME BY MOVING TO COLLEGE. OTHERS GET JOBS AND THEIR OWN APARTMENT. IT'S HEALTHY AND NATURAL TO WANT TO LEAVE HOME AND BE INDEPENDENT. I LEAVE YOUR PARENTS FOR GOOD; YOU CAN LEARN A PARENTS. (WE STILL KEEP IN TOUCH WITH OUR FOLKS, WE ARE TOURING.) AND THE LONGER YOU ARE AWAY FROM THE MORE YOU'LL REALISE HOW MUCH THEY REALLY LOVE. (UNLESS, OF COURSE, THEY ARE POSSESSED BY SATAN. LOVE,

Dear Dead Milkmen, Why did you choose the name "The Dead Milkmen"? theories to this.

1. That you are moonlighting as milkmen.
2. That you are milkmen moonlighting as rock'n' roll.
3. That you know some (or knew) some milkmen who were called "filthy, rich".
4. Off a U.K. comedy show called "The Young Ones", as starting well known faces of "The Young Ones", as episode it involved the murder of lots of milkmen.
or 5. It's better than being called "The Amazing A whatever one can it be. Do tell.

DAVE BLOOD SPEAKS

Too many ants were running around the compound. Too many for it to be safe to be there. Sure we all had our Waastguards on, but hey, these were Neen ants. KILLERS.

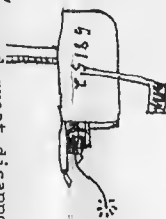

Let's step back just a few months, to a time when the environs was a more friendly place. The season was Spring and everyone was happy because the WAR had ended. Plumbing had become inexpensive and singing in public was legal again. It was a time so truly wonderful that it almost made us forget the "bliss" time before the WAR. The bad gas. God, it smelled awful.

Anyway, let us get back to the Spring before Accident air and nourishing food for all. Heaven couldn't have been any better. Everyone was either Adam or Eve. What we didn't know was that the Tree was in a lab in Southern New Jersey. No one could have known. Life was all bliss; a walk in a dream. But no one seemed willing to be a watcher.

It happened in late June that five of the "re-assembled" ants escaped from the South New Jersey lab. The N. E. USA. Nothing was able to stop them. They could poison but not be poisoned. And damn, they reproduced at a rate that could shame any rabbit. So there we were: Jok, Sren, Vlenn and myself, trying to make a break for it. Across the compound was a car with a full tank of gasoline. It'd get us 400 miles away from here and way ahead of the ant hoard. We just wanted to live, Dammit! 1 - 2 - 3 - GO. We all ran towards the car. The ants went for Vlenn and got him. They covered him. He screamed. We cried but we ran on. jumped in the Subaru and roared off west on I-40.

I'm on my own now. I've been here in San Francisco for a week now trying (as everyone else has) to buy a boat. It's got to be a good one 'cause I'm heading for Japan. Hawaii can't take people anymore. I just wanna live, Dammit.

Dearliest Millman, /H
To my mistress and great disappointment, the music scene in Denver, Colorado has become the lint in the belly button of the entertainment world. A malignant wart, if you will, on the forehead of a once promising industry. On the fifth of this month, a friend and I went down near the Mexican projects on Santa Fe Drive to see what we had been looking forward to for a while: Social Distortion. Well, Denver now has a population of L.A. "anti boys" a skins large enough to populate a small Asian country. It is no longer a place where a bunch of kids can go enjoy themselves, and slam dancing is right out. It's the gang against everyone else, and no one wants to be the first to fight it, so a crowd of hundreds cowers to a small group of no more than fifteen. I tried so hard to put a stop to this have tham fifteen.

The only bands I've seen that try to put a stop to this have been Fishbone, The Red Hot Chili Peppers, The Butthole Surfers, and Dope. Contrarily, bands that I thought would be a lot cooler about it have either ignored it or supported it, including The Circle Jerks, D...O...A... The Vandals, Suicidal Tendencies (before they went heavy metal), The Adolescents, and countless more. A friend of mine, Dave Fuiks, has told me of rumors that The Dead Milkmen may come to Denver. If you ever do I would like to ask you to give any racial boys and punk rock jocks (skins and suicidal) a big ole middle finger from Diamond Don. And if you were to print this in your newsletter, I would like to say to any of the above mentioned boners reading this to lick my creek like a hot fudge sundae.
By the way, if you do come down toward the midwest, tour Lincoln, Nebraska. I'm going to be going to college about an hour away, and I've always wanted to see the Dead Milkmen. Besides, you can stay in a guest room in my dorm for a meager five bucks a night. I'll tell them that I know you. Write me back, I've been a fan since Big Lizard first came out. I always appreciate a bit of crude insulting humor!

Love and chainsaws,

Dead Fan,

I would like to dedicate an article in the newsletter in loving memory of Timothy Scott Turner who died February 12, 1989. Tim was a big fan of the Milkmen and spread the popularity of D.M. throughout campus. All of his friends miss him so much and we all love him. This is for Tim, the chance we never got, You're remembered forever.

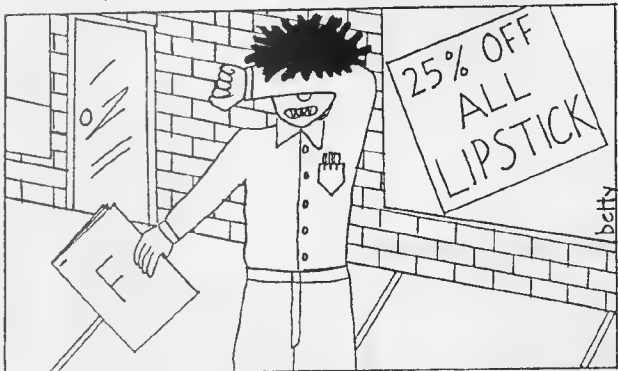

LOVE,

Love and chainsaws,
Diamond Don Ryan

Love,
Bridgette Bellamy and friends,

DEAR BRIDGETTE AND FRIENDS,
CONSIDER THIS ENTIRE NEWSLETTER DEDICATED TO TIM.
LOVE & PEACE, THE D.M.
